

Privacy statement Stekz B.V.

Your privacy is our concern

We process your personal data when you become, are, or were a customer of ours or when you fill out the contact form on our website. We handle your (personal) data confidentially and comply with legal obligations such as the AVG. We process your personal data purely to be able to carry out our work, not for any other commercial activity around personal data itself.

We collect only what is minimally necessary. If you are a customer of ours or want to make an appointment with us we ask you for your personal data, that being:

- Name
- E-mail address
- Phone number

In order to enter into an agreement with you, we also ask for your organization name, as well as your visiting and billing address. We collect this information directly from you and do not receive it from third parties. Your data will be kept and used for the above-mentioned purposes until you indicate that we may no longer use your data for this purpose. You have the right to do so. You may also see the data we process about you and have it corrected. You also have the right to request that we delete your data unless the processing of your personal data is necessary to perform our basic services.

We never disclose your personal data to third parties, unless required by a legal requirement or if you yourself have given explicit permission to do so. When visiting our website, certain cookies are automatically placed on your device. These cookies fall into two categories: essential cookies and optional cookies that require your consent.

Stekz B.V. does not log IP addresses and does not perform any commercial actions that could be possible from cookies. We may make changes to our privacy statement, for example, if the legislation changes. We use only the cookies necessary to ensure the proper functionality of our website and to enhance security. We do not engage in tracking your online activity for commercial purposes, nor do we log IP addresses for marketing use.

We advise you to consult this privacy statement regularly. Consult. We find it very important that your data is well protected by us.
